Minter, Douglas has shared a OneDrive for Business file with you. To view it, click the link below.

Thanks Kimi and Omar!

I will go ahead and merge these into the RTC and remove your placeholder comment there.

A few last edits and I think it's good to go into the larger document.

Thank you Kimi: I made some final edits including some additional language you suggested in response to the last PT comment (#12).

Kimi/Omar: the attached clean/updated version lists all twelve comments and our responses to them. Unless you have further edits/comments, are we ready to incorporate these into the RTC and retain the highlighted cross references to the CEA and other responses?

Do we need to discuss further or are we ready to create a clean draft version for final review?
